

BEAUTY AT A RACE

The Comstock Park Grand Stand Blazed With

MANY GORGEOUS COSTUMES

The Feminine Element of Grand Rapids Society to the Front—The Women Whose Husband Did Not Bet.

Of course, the races occupied the attention of all society during the past week. They went out to the track on a mass every day, and the big grand stand blossomed with bright colors like a meadow garden. There were pinks and purples, reds and blues, greens and yellows, and gold, blue and black, purple and brown, in fact every color and shade known to nature and the progressive dyer. White costumes were thick as field daisies and pink gowns blossomed like fair morning glories. The dressing was the most elaborate ever seen on any occasion, similar or dissimilar, in the city. Mrs. W. S. Hull's costumes were perhaps the most striking of any worn in the private boxes. Mrs. LeGrand Perce also wore handsome gowns each day, a very beautiful one having been worn Friday. It was a cream material, soft and pretty, with large pale green poppies scattered over, and a delicate web of pale green was full down the front of the bodice. Her hat was the pale green toque. Miss Maud Lilley wore a handsome gown of ox-blood, red China silk, with a red hat and parasol. Miss Hilkey wore white, with a lavender parasol, and made a very pretty picture. It was a fair gathering of wealth, beauty and fashion. There were also women there who looked as though they belonged to the staid church-going class. One of them was heard remarking that she found it almost impossible to keep her husband from betting on flying jib in the racing race. "It's so dreadfully wicked and 'sporty' to bet on horse race," she said, but she afterward added that she was sorry she prevented her husband's betting inclination, "for he would have won," she said. So it would seem that the crime of betting consists mainly in the crime of losing.

BEAUTIFUL TRAVERSE.

Grand Rapids Representatives That Were There Last Week.

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., Aug. 12, 1892.

A few days of heavy rains, accompanied by fierce thunder storms, the first of the week, cleaned the atmosphere of Northern Michigan of all its sultry August heats and made the region by the Traverse bay more of an earthly paradise than ever.

There surely are nowhere skies and waters so blue, forest-clad hills so green, sunshine so golden, or air so pure and bracing.

All the hotels and resorts are full, among the pleasure-seekers being many Grand Rapids people.

At Neeshawanta have been William H. Baxter, Mrs. Dell H. Wheelon, Miss Carrie Wheelon, Mrs. D. H. Naysmith, H. W. Nelson, N. Fred Avery, Nora E. Barnhart, Frankie Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bertsch and son, Bertie and Edith Seckell, Mrs. A. C. Seckell and Mrs. C. W. Baxter and children.

At Traverse Beach were Mr. and Mrs. E. Calkins, Miss Ada M. Weston and Miss Nellie Udell.

Mr. and Mrs. Wormly have spent the week with Mrs. Aldrich at Old Mission.

F. J. Grenell and wife and the Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Ransom were in Traverse City Wednesday.

Mrs. Helen A. Shepard and Miss Shepard were in Traverse City during the week.

Among the guests at Park place have been Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Campbell, F. B. Wain and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Graves, R. J. Goppert, M. S. Long and T. Allen.

The Field of Gettysburg is to the old soldier and the student the most interesting of all the earth's battle grounds. Those who go to Washington to attend the encampment of the G. A. R. in September, will have the best opportunity of visiting Gettysburg by taking the line of the Michigan Central and the Northern Central, which includes a side trip to Gettysburg either going or returning.

For those who wish to return by way of Philadelphia, all return tickets will be honored either via the short line or via Philadelphia, allowing stop-over at Baltimore, Philadelphia and Harrisburg. The stop at Philadelphia will permit of a side trip to New York and return at the low rate of $4.00.

During the summer season the Michigan Central gives the privilege of stopping over at Niagara Falls at any time within the life of the ticket returning, upon depositing it with the ticket agent there, affording a valuable opportunity to see the beauties of the great cataract and vicinity at leisure.

Tickets are also sold to Washington via Toledo and the lines south and east therefrom.

The Michigan Central is the shortest route, the best route, and offers inducements that no other line can give. For any additional information apply to nearest Michigan Central ticket agent or to J. S. Hall, Mich. Pass. Agent, Jackson, Mich.
